Electronic Licence for Publication

How to access and sign your electronic Licence for Publication
Accessing the electronic Licence for Publication

The Link to the Licence for Publication will be sent to your email.

There is a link to detailed instructions.
The latest version of the protocol/review is attached.

Click the link to access the page with the Licence for Publication.
Accessing the electronic Licence for Publication

You will be redirected to the Archie log-in page where you should use your Archie user name and password for accessing the electronic Licence for Publication.
The electronic Licence for Publication

Please read carefully all the information provided in the Licence for Publication.

You can also check/read the latest version of the review/protocol.

To sign the form, scroll down to the bottom of the page.
Choose the appropriate option.

Check the box ‘I have read the terms and accept the Licence for publication’ and type your name in the area provided.

Click Submit to sign the Licence for Publication.
Note: UK government and WHO employees must upload an additional form.